

“Saying Good-bye”

Sugar, today, three days after leaving your earthly body, we say Good-bye to you dear one, God-speed.

We thank you for your undying love.

We thank you for choosing us.

We thank you for the joy we have experienced through you.

We thank you for the look in your eyes.

We thank you for the touch and feel of your body.

We thank you for the pleasure of watching you move.

We thank you for your sounds.

We thank you for your traits that we have so come to love.

We thank you for your loyalty.

We thank you for your compassion.

We thank you for your companionship.

We thank you for always being there for us in our time of need.

We thank you for your endlessly generous spirit.

We thank you for sharing your life with us.

We thank you for trusting us.

We thank you for connecting us to others that we have formed loving and long-term friendships with.

We thank you for all that you have taught us.

We thank you for touching so many hearts around the world.

We thank you for the lessons learned by virtue of our having been in each other's lives.

We thank you for the knowing, that even though we are now saying “good-bye” and acknowledging our willingness to let you go, it is a paradox of life, that having let you go, you will nevertheless be with us always.

We will miss you more then words can say. We love you. You will remain in our hearts forever. With wings on your hooves, fly with the angels, dear one. God bless. Go in peace.
